Email Id: apoorvaheroor@gmail.com

I am a first-year Ph.D. scholar at HSS, BITS Pilani, Goa. I began my university studies with a Bachelors in Public Administration, Journalism and English. This was followed by a Masters in South Asian Studies and then an M.Phil. in Political Studies. My research interests include political thought, political theory, and international politics. I am currently working on Ambedkar's political thought with a focus on caste in the conceptualisation of 'nation', 'sovereignty' and 'people'. I have previously worked as a research assistant at USI-CAFHR, New Delhi and NIAS, Bangalore.
